

By car:

You can reach the hotel directly via Bergstrasse – this is the shortest route, which takes you through the pedestrian zone.

If you arrive after 11am, you will find a bollard hindering access to the pedestrian zone. Please use the intercom system to ask for the free access code.

By train:

On foot via Rainer-Strasse – Dreifaltigkeitsgasse – Platzl (Linzer Gasse), then turn left and walk about 130m until you reach the hotel.

How long it takes: about 20 to 30 minutes

By public transport:

Any bus that drives into the centre; the No. 1, 3, 5, 6 or 25 buses are ideal. Get off at “Makart-Platz”. After getting off the bus, turn right and walk up to the church at the top end of the square. From there, you keep walking to the right into Dreifaltigkeitsgasse. Turn left at the Osteria into Richard Mayr-Gasse (in summer you’ll find a small stream flowing through the middle of the street). At the end of this street you turn right and after about 30 steps you reach Linzer Gasse. Now take one more left turn and you’ll already be in front of our hotel.

How long it takes: about 20 to 30 minutes, depending on the bus connection.

Cost: about 3 euros p.p.

By taxi:

Taxis can be found right outside the train station’s main exit.

How long it takes: about 10 minutes. Cost: about 8 to 12 euros

By air:By bus to the hotel:

You will find the buses headed for the city centre right outside the arrivals hall. Take the No. 2 bus and get off at “Paris Lodron-Straße”. From there, walk back about 15m to the crossing and turn left into Bergstrasse (there is a Hypo-Bank on the corner). At the end of Bergstrasse turn right and you will find yourself right in front of Hotel Stadtkrug.

How long it takes: about 45 minutes. Cost: about 3 euros p.p.

By taxi:

You will find taxis right outside the airport building.

How long it takes: about 15 to 20 minutes. Cost: about 20 to 25 euros

We would be happy to organise a shuttle service for you from the train station or airport (at a charge). Our taxi partner company also has several minivans – so that small groups/families can also reach our hotel in a single vehicle.

If we’ve left anything out, please don’t hesitate to call us or send an email. We’ll try to help in any way we can!
